

Access to Library & Library resources

CSU Students:

- should use their valid CSU UID card at the Security desk
- can use their University ID to check out books or make copies.
- can use any computer throughout the library being signing in with a valid CSU email account and password.

CSU Alumni:

- can enter the Library with their Alumni Card.
- should sign in at the security desk.
- can use Library computers with their user name and password.
- can borrow materials from our library with their Alumni Card.
- have no Interlibrary Loan privileges.
- have no time limits for using computers.

CSU Emeritus Faculty:

- can enter the Library with their CSU emeritus card.
- can borrow materials from our library
- have Interlibrary Loan privileges.
- can use Library computers with their user name and password.
- have no time limits for using computers.

I-Share students (Students from consortium Universities):

- should register at the Security Desk.
- can use their library cards to check out materials at the Circulation Desk.
- can use our computers and databases. They would need to log in as "GUEST".
- can use any public computer throughout the Library.
- have time limits if the computer is needed by CSU community users.

Other residents:

- should register at the Security Desk
- will be directed by the Security to the Help Desk for further help.
- can only borrow the materials through their public library.
- can use public computers as a "GUEST" in the designated area on the 1st floor on a first come first served basis for a limited time period.
- have time limits when the computer is needed by other user.
- can use library materials only in the library.
- have no borrowing privileges.